

Teplis Travel Attracts Top Industry Talent

Teplis Travel, a top-ranked travel management company in the U.S., announces the appointment of three new members to their team.

(PRWEB) May 03, 2016 -- Teplis Travel, a top-ranked corporate travel service company in the U.S., announces the appointment of three new members to their team: Joni Doiron, Vice President of Business Development; Sarah Buzzinotti, Vice President of Marketing; and Tony Cocchiarella, Manager of Business Development.

Joni Doiron's previous role at Executive Travel as VP, Sales, and previously at BCD Travel was focused on delivering high value, custom programs for clients. Joni brings that same passion and experience to Teplis Travel and will be focused on the acquisition of new customers.

Sarah Buzzinotti joins Teplis Travel from Direct Travel where she most recently led the marketing team, and TMC acquisition rebranding. Prior to Direct Travel, Sarah was responsible for strategic marketing at Travel Leaders Corporate.

Tony Cocchiarella comes from technology companies' Concur and Deem Inc., where he managed sales and marketing initiatives for enterprise companies across the U.S. Tony is a customer-centric thinker and applies this attitude in all prospect and client engagements. Tony will also be focused on the acquisition of new customers at Teplis Travel.

"Joni and Tony's strengths in complex sales strategies, consultative selling and negotiations are key to the continued success of our business development organization," commented Monica Teplis, Founder and Chairman of Teplis Travel.

"Sarah's marketing approach incorporates unique and out-of-the box ideas. Her ability to understand both the client and traveler's needs supports our vision to always continue improving," said Gary Teplis, CEO of Teplis Travel.

Joni Doiron commented, "The innovative spirit and vision of the Teplis leadership team were compelling reasons for all of us to join this company. We're excited for the future."
